Enc: 1. Enclosure

Dated 29th May / 1st June 1896

From,

Chitaldroog District.

To,

The Excise Commissioner
in Mysore.

Sir,

In submitting Chitaldroog Taluk Amildar's report No. 384 dated 6th May 1896, in original, I have the honor to state that the holder of the Toddy Farm No. XI Chockondanhalli worked it at a great loss in the beginning of the official year owing to an outbreak of cholera in that village and consequently sustained a heavy loss. I can personally vouch for loss having accrued, though

I

I am not aware of what the exact amount is.

2. I beg to recommend that the Petitioner's case be dealt with as a special one, and the remission of a month's Kist sanctioned for him. Under the present system of giving out farms to holders of limited means such concessions have to be granted to prevent them becoming involved in debts and making themselves unable to deal direct with Government.

I have &c.
